The Magic of Gathering

Page Turners @ CAMI book club has been gathering for 5 years. As you know, we all read what we want and come together to 'report' on our respective books. It is understood that we won't walk away wanting to read every book about which we hear but it is so amazing just to hear the stories that each author spins. I mean, how do they come up with such ideas for a story? Each month I also walk away with topics from book reports that I want to know more about. The Dust Bowl, Plagiarism, the Amish, ETs.... Recently there was a report on a book about the Wizard of Oz. I remember a student was doing a research paper and we came across the American Heritage Magazine website. What a treasure! The website has makes full text articles available from 1949-2021! And here is the Wizard of Oz article from 1964. Enjoy!
